Great Buoyancy in Stock Market On Good Supply of Buying Orders

Steel Preferred Strong on Free London Buying.

ST. PAUL GAINS ONE POINT

Undertone of Confidence Maintained in Spite of Occasional Reactions. Bonds Strong and Active.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—The stock market opened strong at general advances ranging from ½ to ½.

The buoyancy and activity of the market reached high watermark in the early dealings of the day. The mall brought in over Sunday larger buying orders to commission houses than have been received ma long time. London was a free buyer of international issues, but was particularly eager to acquire Steel preferred. There was liberal profittaking by some of the pools and professional traders, but sales were well absorbed and failed to prevent outbreaks of buoyancy in new directions. St. Paul inspired sentiment considerably by opening strong and soon advancing a point. After the first hour there were fractional reactions, but the undertone of confidence was maintained. Bonds were strong and active.

TOO MUCH LONG COTTON

CAUSES DROP IN PRICE NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Cotton opened weak, 2 to 7 points lower. The market was overcrowded with long cotton and declined sharply in the absence of any supporting orders to hold it. The pressure on December was particularly severe and it broke in the first ten minuates about 11 points under the close of Saturday. Cables in the meantime kept dropping and the market also was influenced by return of fine weather in the South. The commission houses have more than the usual number of selling orders, while Philadelphia people appear to be on both sides of the market.

STANDARD OIL MAINTAINS LAST YEAR'S DIVIDEND

A JOCKEY'S SALARY.

A rearrangement of the Capital City League for this week has been found necessary.

For the past two years George Odom, the leading jockey of America, has been under contract to Capt. S. S. Brown, the Pittsburg millionaire, who pays him an annual retainer of $15,000. Then he sells what is known on the turf as "second call" to John Madden, for ar amount approaching half of the first contract price. When neither cwner is starting a horse, Odom has the privilege of accepting outside mounts. From this source a rider of his skill accumulates as much money as he receives from regular contracts. In gifts and prizes in special races, he receives an additional amount. Odom cannot give the exact figures of his income this season until, at the end of the year, he has summed up his outside mounts and perquisites. Safely, he may count on $30,000 as the figure which he may credit for one year of wearing the silks and satins, and riding American racehorses to splendid and sometimes unexpected victory.

A rearrangement of the Capital City League for this week has been found necessary.

The altered schedule follows:

It is coming to be firmly believed that this market is to be provided with cheap money for some time to come, and that while there will be a hardening in the rates with the appearance of the interior demand for crop moving purposes, a serious rise, such as has often marked this movement in other years, is unlikely. It may be that money conditions will resemble those of the autumn of 1894, which, in fact, offers a rather striking parallel to the present situation. Early in August of that year the surplus reserves of the clearing house banks stood at $89,000,000, which compares with the similar accumulation of $57,000,000 at present, the greatest since that year. The call money rate stood that Secretary Shaw is prepared to "stimulate" circulation, if this be needed to "stimulate" circulation, if this be necessary, and that no withdrawals of Government funds from the banks are likely to be made.
